

Tim Pickles has been appointed the new Co-Chair of the Learning Disability Partnership Board

Tim has a lot of experience in speaking up for others and is excited about his new job.

Tim believes that everyone should be treated the same, that people know they have the right to make choices, and to know what is 'out there' for them.

Tim is involved in the Supporting People Service User Forum, is trained as a Peer Reviewer and is a 'Mystery Shopper'.

He graduated from the Tomorrows Leader course in 2008 and is an active member of Keighley & Craven People First.
